Senior Executive Service Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER: S20040089-C

OPEN: 05/29/2004

CLOSE: 07/27/2004

POSITION VACANT: Director, Division of Computing and Communication Foundations (CCF) and Director, Division of Computer and Network Systems (CNS), Directorate for Computer and Information Science and Engineering (CISE)

LOCATION: Arlington, Virginia

Applicants: Please indicate whether you wish to be considered for one or both positions. If you are interested in only one, indicate which position.

SALARY RANGE: $133,000 - $145,600 per annum AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Qualified Applicants
Announcement is for a career appointment. Position is also announced on a two-to-three year limited term appointment basis in S20040089-LTD and on an Intergovernmental Personnel Act assignment basis in S20040089-IPA.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: Serve as members of the CISE Directorate leadership team and as the Foundation's principal spokespersons for research and education in the area of computing and communications foundations or computer and network systems.

The Division of Computing and Communication Foundations supports research and education activities that explore the foundations of computing and communication devices and their usage. The Division seeks advances in computing and communication theory, algorithms for computer and computational sciences, and architecture and design of computers and software. CCF-supported projects also investigate revolutionary computing paradigms based on emerging scientific ideas and integrate research and education activities to prepare future generations of computer science and engineering workers.

The Division of Computer and Network Systems supports research and education activities that strive to create innovative computing and networking technologies and that explore new ways to make use of existing technologies. The Division seeks to foster the development of a better understanding of the fundamental properties of computer systems and networking systems and the creation of better abstractions and tools for designing, building, analyzing, and measuring future systems. The Division also supports the computing infrastructure that is required for experimental computer science and coordinates cross-divisional activities that foster integration of research and education and broadening of participation in the CISE workforce.

Each Director directs the activities of her/his Division, implements overall strategic planning and policy setting within the context of the Division; provides leadership and guidance to Division staff members; determines funding requirements and budget estimates; balances program needs; oversees the evaluation of proposals and recommendations for awards and declinations; and represents CISE and NSF to relevant stakeholder groups both within and outside the agency.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Senior Executive Service (SES) covers managerial positions above GS-15 in the Federal Service. Persons appointed to the SES are eligible for health benefits, life insurance, social security, Federal retirement and thrift savings plan coverage, and participate in the Federal leave system. Career appointees are eligible for bonuses based on performance in addition to base pay. Competitive status is not required, veteran's preference does not apply and there are no grade restrictions. New appointees to the SES are required to serve a one-year probationary period. Final selection of career appointees requires the approval of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. OPM approval will be based on the selectee's background in the following 5 executive core qualification areas: (1) Leading Change, (2) Leading People, (3) Results Driven Leadership, (4) Business Acumen, and (5) Building Coalitions/Communication. These areas are incorporated in the 5 executive/managerial requirements for the position. Information about the leadership requirements for SES-level positions is available on the U.S. Office of Personnel Management website at <http://www.opm.gov/ses/handbook.html>. The individual selected will be required to file an "Executive Branch Personnel Public Financial Disclosure Report" (SF-278) in accordance with the Ethics in Government Act of 1978.

EVALUATION METHOD

Applicants will be screened for basic eligibility according to the essential qualification requirements. Eligible applicants will be reviewed by an Evaluation Panel according to criteria based on the qualification requirements. The best qualified candidates will be referred to the appropriate official who will recommend selection. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, physical disability, age, membership in an employee organization or other non-merit reason. Any applicant may request information or appeal the procedures and operations of the merit staffing process to the Executive Resources Board.
